Sandbag is currently helped by a small community of expert organisations, but a growing number of citizens are interested in getting involved with effective charities like ours.

We are seeking a Communications officer who will look after Sandbag's image and help us reach out to a broader audience. This should involve making Sandbag more visible to circles e.g. related to grassroots movements and new types of public engagement.

This exciting mission will involve finding ways to enhance Sandbag's appeal, as well as reaching out to circles of public engagement.

The ideal candidate will:

- care passionately about fighting climate change.
- be familiar with public engagement and the NGO world.
- have previous experience of managing a brand identity.
- be familiar with web and social networking tools.
- be a quick learner and a self-starter, happy working under their own initiative.
- enjoy networking and establishing new professional relationships.
- be happy working as part of a small organisation punching above its weight to achieve change.
