Internship (up to 12 months)

Sandbag is a non-profit think tank which uses data analysis to build evidence-based campaigns on EU climate policy. We aim to influence policymakers on policies around the decarbonisation of heavy industry, by reaching out to them privately or publicly through media articles, open letters, social media posts, events, responses to consultations, online tools and articles posted on our website.

We are seeking to strengthen our communications, to improve Sandbag's research output and make it more accessible and visible to relevant audiences (policymakers, media, civil society, ...). This will involve:

- Assisting the Comms officer in:
 - Ensuring presence in media, social media and other channels;
 - Overseeing sandbag's website
 - Drafting quarterly newsletters
- Campaign-specific work (in close collaboration with the team)
 - Creating content in relation to our advocacy campaigns, including social media posts, videos, animations, and other content
 - Posting campaign-related content (on website, in media, social media...) in coordination with the team

The candidate will:

- care passionately about fighting climate change;
- have some graphic design experience;
- be an experienced video creator;
- be a confident user of Canva and social media;
- have flawless English speaking and writing skills;
- have the necessary permits to work or study in the EU.

The ideal candidate will also have:

- web development and/or data visualisation skills;
- previous experience in the NGO sector;
- some knowledge of economics or EU policy.

Key information

The role is based in Brussels or Paris in hybrid format (1 day a week or more), starting asap.

Application instructions

Please apply by sending a covering letter and CV to contact@sandbag.be by 31 August 2026. Interviews will take place shortly after we receive applications.
